

Launched Single LR wire in India (April 2015)

Single LR wire launched for the first time in India, acts as a replacement for PC wires. It is a higher performance product and manufacturing process for this eliminates use of hazardous material like molten Lead, which is fully eliminated and replaced with consistent electric heating.

